Posted by leugim - 2007/08/18 15:59

i've started my batanes trip funds and have cut back on my two wallet busters - starbucks and sbarro visits. i don't cook and rarely eat home, but we gotta change our ways people. hehehe. i may save enough to get there by late october or early november. wuhoo! batanes here i come. by the way, what should i expect to see on those months?

i'm just crossing my fingers and hoping that typhoons don't ruin my plans.

You picked the perfect time for a visit Miguel. October and November are Fiesta months and we look forward to showing you around town so you to get to experience how Ivatans P-A-R-T-Y, Islander Style. :laugh: :whistle:

October

October 1 - Brgy. Sinakan Barrio Fiesta, Sabtang (Sta. Teresita de Niño)

October 7 - Itbayat Town Fiesta (Sta. Maria de Mayan)

October 7 - Brgy. Tukon/Chanarian (Basco) Barrio Fiesta

October 26 - Brgy. Sumnanga Barrio Fiesta, Sabtang (San Luis Beltran)

November

November 4 - Mahatao Town Fiesta (San Carlos Borromeo)

November 27- Brgy. Itbud Barrio Fiesta (Nuestra Señora da la Medalla Milagrosa)

An added treat for you to see are the flocks of migratory birds - valichits (small brown birds local to Batanes) and the kuyabs (grey-faced buzzard) - who stay in Batanes for a few days before they continue to fly to warmer areas.

Hello, Daniel75.

February to June is usually the fishing season. There's nothing like these months to enjoy sun, sea, and F-I-S-H!!! Get in touch with us and we can arrange activities with local fishermen so you can get to experience the thrills of catching dibang (flying fish) and arayu (dolphin fish).

We can't wait to hear from you again.

I've been dreaming of visiting the islands since I was in high school...

Planning a trip on May - June. Can you guys give me advise on what's happening on the islands on these months.

Also, how do I go around the island?

Thanks and I'd appreciate a reply! =)
